Dear Ann,

Thanks for your card. I won’t forget the good time at your home in London. Next winter my family will move to New York and I’ll be a girl of thirteen then. It is very cold in Pairs now. But I like people here very much. Let me tell you something. Today I went to a piano match. I was very afraid when the piano teacher called my name. It was first time to play in front of so many people. Before I walked up to the piano, Tom said to me, ”Take your time . I believe you will play very well.” I sat down and started to play. I made a few mistakes but nobody seemed to know them. People just kept quiet and listened carefully. When my songs were finished, two little girls ran up and gave me some flowers. I felt very happy. “How friendly French people are!” I said to Mary. Tomorrow I have to go to see my doctor again. How I hope it will be the last time!

When are you going to visit Japan? Please write and tell me what you have done since we met last time. Take care.

Lots of love,

Jean White
