Dear Liu Peng,

Hi! Your e-mail address is on the "E-friends" website, and I would like to be your e-friend. My name is Anna. I am from Italy(意大利). I am twelve years old. I get up at 8:00 am and have coffee and bread for breakfast. School starts at 9:00 am. I have lunch at school. Most Italians like to sleep for two hours after lunch, but I never do that.

Our afternoon lessons usually end at 5 :00 pm. After school I often play with my classmates for half an hour. Then I go home. I often have my supper with my family at 8:00 pm.

Every Sunday we go to church(去教堂做礼拜). After church we often sit in a cafe. We drink coffee or have ice-cream. We get home late in the afternoon. Write to me soon and tell me about yourself and your family.

Best wishes ! Anna

In China, more and more middle school students are getting shorter sleeping time than before.

Most students sleep less than nine hours every night because they have too much homework to do. Their teachers and their parents give them much homework. Also, some students don't know how to save time. They are not careful enough while they are doing their homework, so it takes them a lot of time.

Some students spend too much time watching TV programmers or playing computer games. They stay up very late. Some students have to get up early every morning on weekdays to get to school on time by bus or bike. It can be a long way from home to school.

Schools and parents should cut down some of the homework so that the students can enjoy nine hours of sleep every night. Children are our country's future and we should look after them well.
