第一节 情景作文

One possible version:

My Special Gift for Grandma

During winter vacation, I spent my lucky money on a special gift for Grandma. One Friday afternoon, I went to a cell phone store and chose a large button phone specially designed for seniors. I gave it to Grandma when I came to visit her at the weekend. Upon receiving the phone, Grandma was very happy and eager to learn how to use it. I patiently explained all the important functions she needed. Grandma learned carefully and wanted to have a try. With my help, she successfully called her friend. That afternoon Grandma proudly told the neighbors that she could make calls with the new phone I bought her. They all praised how thoughtful I was.

第二节 开放作文

One possible version:

As can be seen from the picture, a teacher-like cock stands on the bank, proudly and vividly explaining how to swim. His students, three ducks, float in the water, listening attentively.

The picture wants to remind us of the importance of self-awareness. Both the cock and the ducks fail to know themselves clearly, so they make vain effort. The cock is definitely unable to swim but works as a swimming coach confidently. On the other hand, the ducks, the born swimmers, are eager to learn how to swim, even from a cock. Lack of a sound self-knowledge, they are bound to fail. As to us, we should have a right judgment to our ability and choose to do what are really suitable for us.
