四、阅读理解（共 20 小题；每小题 2 分，满分 40 分）

A

Stop Phubbing (低头族)

Last month a young girl lost her life under the wheels of a truck when she crossed the road. She is responsible for her death. The girl was busy checking the WeChat information on her smart phone, snubbing(无视) the traffic lights. Suddenly, a car came fast and hit her. The girl lay on the ground and couldn't get up at once. Just at that time, a running truck failed to stop and ran over her. What a bloody lesson!

We may see people looking down at their cell phones everywhere in our life: in subway, restaurants, elevators, roads. From family party to date with a friend, people couldn't stop playing with their cell phones or checking their QQ, WeChat, facebook on their phones, snubbing the people around completely. "Phubbing" is a new term which comes from the words "phone" and "snub". It describes the habit of snubbing someone because of fixing on a cell phone. The word "phubbing" was included in the Australian National Dictionary in 2012.

Phubbing is a global phenomenon now. Not only the young people, but also the elderly and kids can be seen playing with their cell phones everywhere. It seems that it is not a big matter, however, it does disturb our life. Shen Hongfei, an epicure (美食家), wrote in his blog, "I can no longer focus on what I am eating since I started sending photos of the food on WeChat. My skill of food photography has improved very fast, while my interest in food drops gradually."

Are you also a phubber? Let's put down the cell phone and enjoy the taste of food and the warmth of family communication.

46. Why does the writer show us the bloody lesson in paragraph 1?

- A. To tell the recent news.
- B. To tell us the traffic rules.
- C. To describe a terrible car accident.
- D. To draw our attention to Phubbing.

47. What does the underlined sentence mean in paragraph 3?

- A. Phubbing is common.
- B. Phubbing is unusual.
- C. Phubbing is well known.
- D. Phubbing is amazing.

48. What does "it" refer to in the third paragraph?

- A. Phubbing.
- B. A big matter.
- C. The cell phone.
- D. The blog.

49. What does the writer advise us to do according to the passage?

- A. To check WeChat on the phone when you're dating with your friend.
- B. To send the photos on WeChat while you're enjoying delicious food.
- C. To put down your cell phone and spend more time with your families.
- D. To get the young and the old know how to use WeChat on cell phones.

50. What's the writer's opinion towards "Phubbing"?

- A. Supportive
- B. Criticized
- C. Neutral(中立的)
- D. Not clear

B

A terrible earthquake happened. Thousands of houses fell down. A young father rushed to his son's school at once. When he saw the beautiful teaching building turned into ruins (废墟), he was shocked. "My son, where are you?" He lay on the ground and cried out loudly.

Suddenly he thought of the words he often said to his son, "No matter what happens, I'll be with you!" He started to dig in the ruins. Other helpless parents and the firemen arrived and tried to pull him off the ruins, saying, "It's too late! They're all dead! There's nothing you can do!" But he kept on digging without anyone's help, because he believed that his son was still alive.

8 hours..... 12 hours..... 24 hours..... 36 hours passed, then in the 39th hour, he pulled back a rock and heard his son's voice. He shouted his son's name, "AEMAND!" He heard back, "Dad! It's me, Dad! I'm sure you'd save me if you were alive, You promised, 'No matter what happens, I'll always be there for you!' you did it, Dad!"

"What's going on in there? How is it?" the father asked.

"There are 14 of us left out of 33, Dad. We're frightened, hungry, thirsty and thankful you're here."

"Come out, boy!"

"No, Dad! Let the other kids out first, because I know you'll get me! No matter what happens, I know you'll always be there for me!"

“Now, it is the time to witness the miracle!” The magician, Liu Qian, discovered a diamond ring in an egg in front of millions of people at CCTV’s Spring Festival Gala (春晚) in 2009. Liu’s magic tricks have made the old art of magic fashionable once again, and made him the hottest magician in China.

As a skillful young magician from Taiwan, Liu is popular worldwide for his magic shows. He has performed in countries, including the United States, Japan, South Korea and the UK.

Making something impossible happen right before your eyes is the reason why people love magic.

Liu has a special understanding of magic shows, “To get a magic show successful, thinking is more important than skills. We think a lot about how to make the shows creative and more interesting,” Liu said. So during his performance, audiences(观众) are often invited to be in his shows, making people believe he really has magic power.

Liu Qian's success dated back to his childhood. Born in 1976 in Taiwan, he found himself attracted to a magic toy in a shop when he was seven years old. At the age of 12, he won Taiwan's Youth Magic Contest, which was judged by the great American magician, David Copperfield. "It encouraged me to carry on my magic show dream." But Liu planned on becoming a professional magician at the beginning. He studied Japanese literature at University and only hoped to be a part-time magician. However, his failure to find a good job after graduation pushed him towards magic as a career. To improve his skills, he has performed on streets for passers-by.

"Street shows are the biggest challenge for us magician." Liu said.

In 2001, Liu started a TV show called "Magic Star", which quickly became one of the most popular shows. He successfully keeps this traditional art form alive.

56. Why do people love to watch magic?

- A. Because magic is an old art.
- B. Because magic attracts their eyes.
- C. Because they cannot find out the secret of magic.
- D. Because they love watching magicians make the impossible happen.

57. What can we learn from the story?

- A. Liu Qian wanted to be a professional magician at first.
- B. Liu Qian took part in many magic competitions.
- C. Liu Qian often invites audiences to be in his magic show.
- D. Liu Qian performs on streets in order to make himself famous.

58. What made Liu Qian decide to make magic his career?

- A. He played magic on streets in his free time.
- B. He had won Taiwan's Youth Magic Contest.
- C. He was interested in magic when he was little.
- D. He could not find a good job after graduation.

59. In what order did Liu Qian do the following?
